gath - er 'round, ye — lit - tle kids, And, lis - ten un - to me; I'll have been done brown a doz - en times, I — do not care a rap, Though lit - tle boy buys me with a cent, To his in - no - cent de - light, Andre.

tell you the in - ter - es - ting tale, Of — how — I come to be, For kids on — me com - mit all crimes, My — life's — a gin - ger snap, They've moves an — arm or — leg or two, With a quick — de - cis - ive bite, As I am the man you've heard of oft, but none of you may know, I'm the hung me in a win-dow, marked a pen-ny each a throw, And the down his throat I gent-ly float, how can that hope-ful know, Un-man that the law has a war-rant out for, The o - rig-i - nal John Dough.

 girls on the street say I'm just fit to eat, The o - rig-i - nal John Dough. less he is told, that he's stowed in his hold, The o - rig-i - nal John Dough.

Refrain.

John Dough, John Dough, They are look-ing for me high and low, I'm
